Malaysia Urban Forum

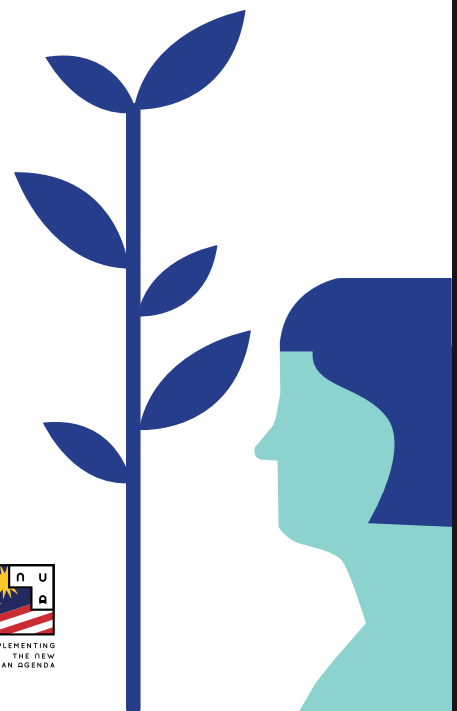

This year we are transforming MUF2020 into a 'hybrid conference' - an interactive virtual platform and physical meeting. The event will be a milestone for Malaysia as it will be one of the countries that is organising an Urban Forum during global pandemic in the 'New Normal', with an estimated 30,000 entries included virtually from local and international representatives as well as general visitors.

The Malaysia Urban Forum will be held this year at Bangunan Sulaiman, Kuala Lumpur from 28 - 30 September 2020. The urban matters to be discussed include but are not limited to urban innovation and technologies, urban farming, age-friendly cities, public space, climate change, community wellbeing and recovery planning. Stakeholders of the cities includes from NGO representatives, mayors, scholars, professionals and public of all ages from all around the world and Malaysia are coming together on the same platform with a target audience of 10,000, the Forum are comprised of pre-event labs, high-level dialogues, special, side events, urban labs and virtual exhibition.

With Malaysia Urban Forum, Urbanice Malaysia aims to establish an urban forum to be annually organized at national level. will bring together all the stakeholders that play an important role in the design, transformation and management of cities, and different approaches to urban services and city management will be addressed together. The forum will provide the basis for sharing knowledge, experience and opportunities with more than 200 speakers from different countries and 10,000 participants virtually.

Sustainable Urban Nation 2030

The transformative pathway and actions to deliver the sustainable agenda

The theme for this year's conference is 'Sustainable Urban Nation 2030 - The transformative pathway and actions to deliver the sustainable agenda' that aims to promote discussions and sharing of solutions towards developing and addressing the many urban challenges we face in becoming a Sustainable Urban Nation 2030.

This is line with the Sustainable Development Goals and the Forum will be a platform where different voices will come together to discuss the importance and function of cities as well as their problems, and prepare a platform for sharing global and local information. The aim of the forum is to seek solutions to the economic, political, social, ecological problems caused by the urbanization process in the lives of individuals and societies and to examine these problems in solidarity and cooperation at local, regional, national and international levels.

5 SUB-THEMES

Malaysia Urban Forum 2020 will provide a detailed overview of the world of cities with a broad perspective of 5 sub-themes : Inclusive Urbanisation, Innovation and Technology for Sustainability, Urban Resilience and Low Carbon, Culture and Creative Cities and Financing Sustainability.

MUF2020 aims to strengthen the role of local governments and cities in crises and pandemic situation for various reasons, to raise awareness on safe, inclusive, resilient and sustainable urbanization, to contribute to the transformation of cities to make them more liveable and equitable, to provide information flow between cities and city-regions and support networks of relations between cities.
